

The Cliff,
near Burdree.

25-0

My dear friend
A letter just now
received from Mrs Lucas tells me that you leave on Thursday morning. I hope this will reach you before embarking. May all
blessed influences
go with you. As I have they will - we shall think of me often and always lovingly - May the angels and babes

hear you pleasantly
in your chosen habitation - The church the most blessed lightful recollection of your death to us - I feel so glad that you leave my husband and children
dear and they will ever remember you
with pleasure and all feel indebted to and you that you turned aside to kindly to visit us—Mr. Gilfillan was here yesterday he was quite charmed with your letter to him. and with your address. I gave him

"Huntley Lodge". I did not realize that you were leaving St. Louis he is sending you his kindness. He expressed deep regret at missing
the opportunity of meeting you. I was glad to hear of the opportunity of appointing my name to the address presented to you yesterday by the Women of Great Britain.

If you have opportunity on board the vessel before touching Queenstown. I shall value a few lines telling me how you are, in the meantime we send you deep thanks on our hearts and pray that
the angels may have special charge concerning you both - as I know